Hello,

What a wonderful day! Scott was super impressed. He said that he will be following up with me in a few days with next steps. He was amazed that we could pull such a comprehensive tour together with two weeks notice.

Thank you all for making this tour happen. Special thanks to our co-hosts - the Port and San Pedro Chamber of Commerce. We make an unstoppable team. It was a proud day showing off our community.

Hope everyone has a relaxing weekend.

Sincerely,
Jenny

Hello,

We are looking forward to you joining tomorrow's lunch and boat tour with Scott Andes, a representative from the Brookings Institute.

Please plan to meet at Berth 85 (600 Sampson Way, San Pedro, 90731) at 11:45 am for the harbor tour and lunch. Please wear boat appropriate footwear.

The Mauretania will be docked at Berth 85 just north to the Maritime Museum. There is parking along Harbor Blvd. and in the lot south of the Acapulco.

Please confirm if you will be staying for the remainder of the tour for either the AltaSea visit (concluding at 2pm) or thru the end of the day (ending at 4:30 pm) so we can properly arrange transportation back to your vehicles. The day's schedule is attached to reference.
